

G-Energy Academy – an instrument to boost business performance

Project goal is to train highly qualified personnel and improve practical skills of partner and distribution companies' employees

2017 year of the project launch

>40000 people completed training

>37 partners train personnel at the Academy